

Jonathan Mondon

Head of Consulting, Toku

With over 15 years of multinational leadership experience, he led the regional business for close to a decade at Activeo Singapore (which was acquired by Toku in 2023). He specialises in growing companies from scratch, market development, and is passionate about how new software can create disruptive innovation. Jonathan's expertise lies in a combination of technology and business consulting, with a focus on Digital Workplace, Contact Centre, and Customer Experience. He brings this knowledge to MNC clients in Asia and local companies, helping them reach new heights in customer excellence.
